WHY SGSCC INTERNATIONAL?

St George & Sutherland Community College (SGSCC) is the first Community College in Australia to deliver Vocational Courses to overseas students through SGSCC International.

SGSCC is one of the largest and most successful Community Colleges in Australia. SGSCC delivers over 400 courses across 30 venues in the southern Sydney regions of St George and Sutherland Shire to local students.

These regions offer an affordable, safe and friendly environment for you to learn and achieve the qualifications to give you a global future. We pride ourselves on delivering quality education to International Students.

At SGSCC International you will be part of a caring community dedicated in providing excellent study options combined with real experience, whilst experiencing the diversity of all that Sydney has to offer.

SGSCC is a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) Provider Number 7091, and is registered by Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA). ASQA is the national regulator for Australia’s vocational education and training (VET) sector and regulates course and training providers to ensure nationally approved quality standards are met. SGSCC is accredited to provide training and recognition services according to its Scope of Registration within the Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations.

St George and Sutherland Community College is registered to:
• Deliver training and conduct assessments
• Issue nationally recognised qualifications in accordance with the Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations.

What are the Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations?
The Standards for NVR Registered Training Organisations are a set of nationally agreed standards that:
• Ensures the quality of vocational education and training and training services throughout Australia
• Ensures all Registered Training Organisations and the qualifications they issue are recognised nationally.

Qualifications
St George and Sutherland Community College is registered to deliver training, assess competency and issue Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) qualifications. All training programs delivered and all qualifications issued by SGSCC are in respect of training packages or nationally accredited courses.
Training Packages and Accredited Courses
Training Packages are sets of training materials that have been developed by industry to standardise vocational education and training around Australia. They replace various state and territory VET courses and lead to nationally recognised qualifications. Nationally endorsed standards (within these training packages) describe the skills and knowledge needed to perform effectively in the workplace.

Accredited courses are structured and sequenced vocational education and training courses.

Nationally Recognised Training
An AQF Certificate or Statement of Attainment issued by a Registered Training Organisation assures that students are competent in the standards set by industry. A nationally recognised VET qualification (indicated by the Nationally Recognised Training [NRT] logo) means that students have portable skills and qualifications across Australia.

Nationally Recognised and Accredited courses are identified in the College brochure by the Nationally Recognised Training Logo. Being nationally recognised ensures a high quality of course delivery along with portability of qualifications that are recognised by employers and Registered Training Organisations throughout Australia.

Structure of Courses
In general, courses consist of units of competency, similar to subjects.

Within each unit of competency there is a series of learning outcomes that reflects the skills or competencies that you need to be able to demonstrate competence in, in order to satisfy the assessment requirements.

Competence and Competency Standards
Competence can be defined as the skills and knowledge required to perform the tasks a job requires to the standards demanded by industry.

Competency standards (also referred to as national industry/enterprise competency standards) are national standards that set out the work skills and knowledge required for effective performance in the workplace and is defined by industry. Competency standards are an endorsed component of training packages or where no training package exists, as the basis for defining the learning outcomes of an accredited course.

ACCOMMODATION OPTIONS
SGSCC International can assist you in finding suitable accommodation whilst in Sydney. The different housing options whilst living in Sydney may include:

Homestay
Homestay is a cultural exchange between a local individual or family (called a host) and a visiting student. The student lives for an agreed period of time as a guest in your home.

If you are living with a homestay family remember that they expect you to behave as part of their family not as a hotel guest. Australian families rarely have servants so you may have to do things that you are unused to doing at home for example making your bed, doing your own laundry, assisting in the kitchen.

For Further information go to http://www.homestaynetwork.org

International Students Share Accommodation Service
Living in a share house is one of the most popular accommodation options for international students in Australia. It is a great solution in terms of managing your daily costs of living and in addition, it is a great opportunity to make friends from different parts of the world, experience their culture and habits and most importantly, improve English skills.

For Further Information go to http://www.cozzystay.com.au

Rental Accommodation
You may wish to find accommodation in a house or flat. It is quite common for young people in Australia to live in shared accommodation with their friends. In Sydney the cost of shared accommodation varies and can easily be between $250 and $350 per week. You may be able to pay less if you share your apartment with a number of people.

If you are going to live in a shared flat or house you will also need to pay a returnable bond (deposit) which is usually equivalent to four week’s rent. The bond is used to replace or repair any damage you might be responsible for during the time you live in the accommodation. If there is no damage the full amount will be returned to you when you leave your accommodation. Sometimes there is also a deposit for the security key. You get this back when you return the key when you move out.

There are several ways to find somewhere to live. One way is to check the advertisements in the city and local newspapers. If you have trouble understanding anything in the advertisements you may seek assistance from the International Support officer to help you. You will probably need to telephone to make an appointment to meet the other people who live in the house. Another way to look for a flat is to search the following websites for shared accommodation:
http://www.domain.com.au
http://www.2share.com.au
http://www.realestate.com.au

You can also visit a real estate agent to see if they have any suitable property for you to rent. In this case if you rent a place yourself you may have to find other people to share with you.

Finally you can ask your friends or make contact with students in other colleges to see if anyone has a room they want to rent out.

There may be notices on the student notice board in the college for shared accommodation. The college is not responsible for any accommodation advertised on a college notice board or through websites listed.

SGSCC International will only process payments for Allianz Global Assistance. If you wish to use another provider, you will need to make your own payment arrangements and show evidence of the payment to SGSCC International and immigration when you apply for your visa.

You should compare alternative OSHC providers to find one that suits your budget and needs.

What does my OSHC cover?
OSHC providers allow students to claim 100 per cent of the government set fee for a standard medical consultation. OSHC does not cover dental treatment, optical treatment or physiotherapy. We strongly recommend you take out additional private health cover with your provider to cover these services.

Most standard OSHC premiums do not cover treatment for pre-existing disability or medical conditions during the first 18 months of membership. Students with disabilities or medical conditions who are granted student visas may have to obtain additional health insurance or have extra funds available to cover medical expenses.
Your Offer

Allianz Global Assistance can provide you with an ‘extras’ product known as StudentPlus. You can visit the Allianz Global Assistance website or talk to an Allianz Global Assistance representative on campus to find out more information about this product.

When does my membership start?
OSHC will be activated when you land in Australia; however, it is important to note that a qualifying period may apply for some services. If you renew your visa offshore or take a leave of absence from your studies and have a new visa issued from abroad, you will be subject to another qualifying period for some services.

How long do I need to purchase OSHC for?
All international students pay for OSHC for the duration of their student visa. Visa-length OSHC ensures you will not have to pay any premium increase for the length of your course, subject to goods and services tax (GST). You will be entitled to a refund of any outstanding balance if you leave Australia before you intended, provided there is at least one month remaining before your health cover expires. You should pay the premiums for OSHC when you accept your offer.

Where can I get help with my OSHC?
Allianz Global Assistance has dedicated phone support for their clients.

Student Life at SGSCC International
STUDENT VISAS

International students require a student visa to study in Australia. You should apply for your visa after receiving your eCoE from SGSCC International. Student visa conditions include the requirement to undertake full-time study load.

At SGSCC International, a full-time study load is 20 hours of class per week during a study period (a study period is a school term according to the NSW School Calendar).

Your student visa will:
• Be entered into your passport or emailed to you if you apply online
• Be issued for the duration of your course of study or full duration of a study package
• Enable you to re-enter Australia for the duration of your course

Applying for your Visa
Contact nearest Australian High Commission or embassy to lodge an application for your student visa.
For a full list go to www.immi.gov.au/Help/Locations

You will need to present the following documentation when lodging your application:
• A copy of your Letter of Offer
• A copy of your electronic Confirmation of Enrolment (eCoE)
• Your passport
• Four passport-sized photographs
• A visa application payment (for latest visa application fees go to http://www.immi.gov.au/Help/Pages/feescharges/visa.aspx)

Note: Please ensure you allow enough time for your visa application to be processed so you can arrive at SGSCC International in time to attend orientation. You must be present for the full duration of the orientation program. Refer to your letter of offer for specific dates.

Travelling on a Student Visa
If you return home during breaks, you must check the visa expiry date stamped in your passport. If your student visa expires while you are outside Australia, you will need to apply for an extension of your student visa from overseas. This may delay your return to Australia.

Visitor’s Visa
Students who arrive on a visitor’s visa are not permitted to study in a Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) registered course that is longer than three months. Students must hold a valid student visa to study at SGSCC International.

Students may be allowed to transfer from a visitor’s visa to a student visa while in Australia. Please check DIBP’s website for more information.

Transfer between Institutions
It is possible for students to transfer between courses once they have reached and completed 6 months of study internally. You will only be able to transfer if a place is available for you on the course you wish to transfer to. If you change from one course to another, there may be differences in the course fees, so you may have to pay extra fees.

Students wishing to transfer to another provider may only do so after they have completed 6 months of the principle course and is in line with the company student transfer request policy and procedure.

If you wish to transfer to another training provider you may only do so after you have completed 6 months of your principle course.

BEFORE LEAVING HOME

What to bring?

Your passport
You are advised to check your passport expiry date before departure as renewing a passport in Australia can take some time.

Documents
You must bring the following documents with you to SGSCC International:
- Letter of Offer – do not lose this document as you will need to present it during orientation
- Original or certified copies of your qualifications
- Passport
- A copy of your visa

Clothing
Most days, students wear comfortable, casual clothes such as jeans, T-shirts and skirts. Every day wear is acceptable clothing for classes at SGSCC International.

Sydney enjoys a temperate climate with a mild winter. Average minimum temperatures in the winter months of June through to August are around 9°C -17°C. The summer season is from December through to February with an average temperature of 17°C- 28°C.

Equipment
Most accommodation, except homestay, will not include equipment such as cooking utensils, sheets and blankets. You may choose to bring some of these items with you. Alternatively, products can be purchased from a wide variety of stores. Second hand household items are also available at cheap prices.

Plan your finances

Establishment costs
We recommend you arrive in Australia with at least A$800 and have easy access to a further A$2,500 for your first week in Australia. We advise you use traveller’s cheques, bank drafts or money orders to avoid carrying large amounts of cash. It may be useful to have a credit card to allow access to funds for establishment costs.

The AUD$2,500 can be used to pay for costs associated with finding permanent housing such as bond money, rent in advance (usually two weeks) and power, gas and telephone connections.

Living expenses
You can expect to pay, on average, around A$470 (single) and A$820 (family) per week for living expenses. Living expenses vary depending on financial resources, tastes and interests. Students and parents are advised to set out a budget that caters for individual needs.

Shopping
Most Sydney suburbs have a retail shopping area or mall where students can find a huge variety of shops, so there is no need for them to travel to the CBD for their daily requirements. Australia, and particularly the Sydney metropolitan area, has a multicultural population, so it is easy to find food and other items from many countries.

You should come prepared for our four seasons and the contrasting hot and cold weather. Although the Sydney winter is considered to be mild, sweaters and jackets will be required.

Transferring money to Sydney

Students wishing to transfer money from overseas will need to:
- Complete either a telegraphic transfer or bank draft
- Include the SWIFT code, account number and BSB number of the account into which they wish to deposit funds

Note: bank drafts take six to eight weeks to process unless the draft is in Australian dollars and drawn on an Australian bank. There may be fees involved with both transactions.

Opening a bank account

If you need to open a bank account, you will need to visit a bank branch and take your passport with you for identification. You are not able to open an Australian bank account while overseas.

Banking services in Australia are extremely competitive. Over 20 local and numerous international banking groups are represented in Australia. All major banks have several branches in cities and regional centres. Most shopping centres have Automatic Teller Machines (ATM) facilities. These machines can be used for deposits and, in many instances, withdrawals 24 hours a day. Many department stores, supermarkets and specialist shops have electronic transfer terminals (EFTPOS) where cash withdrawals can also be made in addition to purchasing goods.

Motor vehicle expenses

Students intending to purchase a motor vehicle will incur additional expenses such as petrol, insurance and licence costs. It is also advisable to purchase motor vehicle insurance in case of an accident or theft.

School-aged dependants

Dependants of international students can be enrolled in either government (public) or non-government (private) schools in New South Wales, providing the school has the capacity to accept them. A visa for the dependant/s will need to be obtained through the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) or a representative.

Family members aged 18 years or over may only study for up to three months. If they want to undertake a course of study that exceeds three months, they must apply for a student visa in their own right.

School-age family members, children aged 5–18 years, who join the student in Australia for more than three months must attend school. The student must meet any associated education or tuition costs for that child.

A student’s child aged 18 years or over cannot apply for a student visa as a family member. If they want to study in Australia, they must apply for a student visa in their own right.

Both public and private schools require the payment of full school fees. It is important to understand these costs BEFORE your dependants arrive in Australia. The fee structure is the same for all public schools, but varies considerably for private schools. For further information go to:

A list of Public schools is available at:

For all private school enrolments, you must contact the private school direct for enrolment processes and school fee rates.

Quarantine
Australia has a unique environment, free from many of the pests and diseases found elsewhere in the world. If you are visiting Australia, you must be aware of Australian quarantine laws. When you arrive in Australia, you will need to complete an Incoming Passenger Card. This card must be read carefully and completed truthfully. It is important to remember the Incoming Passenger Card is a legal document and any false declaration can lead to prosecution resulting in a heavy fine or imprisonment, or both.

All animal and plant products, including food items, must be declared for inspection and will be returned in most cases. No matter how small or trivial your items may seem, they are potentially harmful to Australian flora and fauna.

If you are carrying AUD$10,000 or more cash – or the equivalent in foreign currency – with you to Australia, you MUST declare the money on your Incoming Passenger Card. You are also required to declare the money to any Australian Customs officials if questioned upon arrival. Failure to declare this money may result in the money being taken from you and you may also be arrested and prosecuted.

Note: it is not an offence to bring large amounts of money into Australia – the offence is not declaring it.

For further information go to http://www.sydneyairport.com.au/prepare/arrivals

All drugs and medicines should be declared for inspection, especially products that:
- Contain substances that are prohibited without a permit (including narcotics, amphetamines, hallucinogens, barbiturates, vaccines, anabolic and androgenic steroids, growth hormones, and erythropoietin (EPO)
- Are regarded as performance enhancers in sport

Medicines that should be declared include prescribed medications; non-prescription, complementary, alternative, herbal and traditional medicines; vitamins and mineral preparations; and nutritional and dietary supplements.

Do not carry illicit substances into or out of Australia. Penalties for drug offences in Australia are severe and could result in a jail term.

For more information about Australian quarantine laws, please contact the Australian High Commission or embassy in your country or visit the Biosecurity in Australia website at daff.gov.au/biosecurity

If you have any questions about quarantine laws when you arrive in Australia, ask to speak to a quarantine officer after you have collected your baggage. You will find them helpful and understanding.

Note: this information is intended as a guide only.

Excess baggage
Most economy class passengers have a baggage limit of 20 kilograms. Further information regarding excess baggage requirements is available from travel agents or your airline.
DURING YOUR STAY

Getting settled
Remember to contact your family and friends back home and let them know you have arrived safely. Inform them of your travel details, where you are staying and how they can contact you by phone or post. Be sure to keep them updated if you move house during your studies, as SGSCC International is unable to release information about your address to your family and friends.

Internet Access
You will have access to computer and internet facilities while studying at SGSCC International. There is access to wireless internet across the campus where you can log on to the internet using your own laptop or PDA. You will have your own account with personal login details.

Working while you study
Your international student visa permits you to work up to 40 hours per fortnight during study periods and unlimited hours during term breaks. Examples of places in which you can find work are restaurants and retail outlets, although competition for such work is strong. Part-time work may distract you from your studies and you should not rely on part-time work to pay for your tuition fees or other living expenses.

Dependant family members of international students are allowed to work 40 hours per fortnight at all times. For more information visit www.immi.gov.au/students/students/workedwhilestudying

Tax file number
The Australian Federal Government requires anyone working in Australia or with an Australian bank account to have a tax file number. Banks must be provided with a tax file number to ensure the correct tax is charged on any interest earned on an account. You can apply for a Tax file number online via the ATO website at www.ato.gov.au/individuals

Public transport
SGSCC International is located in the southern suburbs of Sydney.

Our Jannali Campus
Our Jannali Campus is in the Sutherland Shire. The college is about a ten minute walk from Jannali railway station where all trains stop regularly and provide quick services to the Sydney CBD as well as local centres including Sutherland, Hurstville, and Cronulla. Jannali is centrally located in the Sutherland Shire. Depending on where you live will depend on what transport you may require.

Our Hurstville Campus
Our Hurstville Campus is situated in the central business and shopping district of Hurstville, on Level 1/12 Butler Road, Hurstville. The college is close to Hurstville railway station where all trains stop regularly and provide quick services to the city of Sydney.

Many public buses depart from close to the college at the bus and rail interchange. Some of these buses travel to the Sydney CBD, and other local buses provide transport around the suburbs close to Hurstville. The central location of the college means that some students will be able to live in the immediate area of the college and they will be able to walk to and from school. However, many students will be living in suburbs further away and will need to catch a bus or train.

DEALING WITH PROBLEMS

Who to talk to
It’s difficult for people when they move to a new country and culture and sometimes they have problems settling down. The problem may be because they do not really understand the way things are done in the new country.

The best way to deal with any problem is to talk about it. If you have a problem, the first person to contact is your trainer unless the problem is one with your trainer.

We have provided a list as to who is the best to attend to your needs should you have an issue or problem. Don’t forget that we have a student counsellor who is trained to help you if you have any personal problems.

STUDYING AT SGSCC INTERNATIONAL

Some students find study in Australia very different from how you studied back at home and you may take time to settle and adjust. In Australian Colleges you are expected to participate and contribute in your training sessions, ask questions as well as conduct research and present back what you have learnt back to the class. You can expect to spend less time listening to the trainer and taking down your own notes and spend more time discussing and reflecting on what you think.

Depending on the qualification level of your course will reflect on the number of hours you will need to spend completing homework outside of class time. You should allocate a minimum of five hours per week for home study and completion of any assessment tasks. You will be required to allocate approximately five hours per week for homework.

Study load
In order to meet student visa requirements, all international students must undertake and maintain a full-time study load in each study period. Full time study load is 20 hours per week during each study period.

Depending on your choice of course and timetable you will study at SGSCC International for a minimum of 20 hours per week. How long you study for depends on how long your course is. You will not be able to change your course when you arrive at the college unless there is a place available on the course you wish to transfer to.

Study period
SGSCC International operates its class schedules and timetables around 4 Study periods per year. A study period is defined by the NSW School term calendar http://www.boardofstudies.nsw.edu.au/events/vacations.html. International Students are required to maintain attendance and satisfactory course progress during each school term as part of their VISA.

Class hours
SGSCC International is open between 8.30am and 6.00pm Monday to Friday.

All classes start at 8.45am and finish at 4.45pm with 15 min break for morning tea and afternoon tea and 30 minutes break for lunch.

Attendance
It is a requirement of your visa and your course to attend all classes. You must attend your classes for the designated hours of your course each week. You will be completing assessment tasks in class time and therefore you are expected to attend 100% of the classes. The schedule is so designed so that it leaves you with a maximum amount of time for out of class study, employment, tours. Holidays are also regularly scheduled.

It is a requirement that the college has to report to the department of Immigration and Boarder Protection (DIBP) should your attendance drop to below 80% which could lead to your visa being cancelled.

If you want to defer or suspend your studies, then it must be done through a formal agreement with the college, and only in certain circumstances. Please fill in the Request for Leave form. Temporary time off your course may be allowed for the following reasons:

- Compassionate or compelling circumstances (e.g. illness where a medical certificate states that you are too sick to attend classes),
- Compassionate grounds (e.g. death or illness of someone close to you)

Note: All absences count in assessing your attendance level, even those with a medical certificate. However, the college will take such compassionate or compelling circumstances into consideration before reporting your attendance to DIBP. Please arrange any appointments not related to your studies for days that you are not scheduled to attend class.

For full details of SGSCC International Course Deferment, Suspension and Cancellation Policy please view www.sgsccinternational.edu.au

Most CRICOS courses offered at SGSCC International have an online/distance component totalling 25% of the weekly attendance. When an international student fails to complete the online/distance component of the class by the following in class study day, a total of 25% will be removed from the previous week’s attendance.

For further information on the SGSCC International Attendance policy go to http://www.sgsccinternational.edu.au/student-information

Absence
If you are going to be late arriving to class, please contact reception on 9528 3344 and advise them which class you are attending. If you are too sick to come to class you must also telephone 9528 3344 to let the college know. You should phone by 8.30am. You should then see a doctor and if they tell you to stay at home you must ask them for a medical certificate which you will hand in to your trainer on the first day back at College.

Tuition fees
Tuition fees are payable by international students as set out and agreed upon by the student in the Letter of Offer and Student Agreement.
The Tuition Protection Service (TPS)

- Submit a written request for course money refund to the SGSCC International Manager
- State valid reasons for their course money refund application
- Allow 28 days for the application to be processed by SGSCC

- Provide to the student in writing the resulting decision of SGSCC International and how any refund of course money has been calculated
- Advise the student of their right to appeal the decision of SGSCC International

This agreement, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia’s consumer protection laws. For further information on the SGSCC international Refund policy go to http://www.sgsccinternational.edu.au/student-information/

Deferment, suspension or cancellation
It is possible for students to transfer between courses once they have reached and completed 6 months of study internally. Students wishing to transfer to another provider may only do so after they have completed 6 months of the principal course and is in line with the company student transfer request policy and procedure.

If you wish to transfer to another training provider you may only do so after you have completed 6 months of your principal course.

SGSCC International and staff are committed to assessing and recording all deferments, suspensions or cancellations of study, ensuring that students within the process are informed of their rights and provided with due care and where relevant opportunities of appeal.

Students who apply for deferment may do so, on the basis of compassionate or compelling grounds. Students who are contravening the rules of attendance at SGSCC International may have their enrolment suspended or cancelled.

Leisure courses
We also offer leisure, social and cultural activities at the college through our Leisure division which you may enrol in outside of your normal class time. Please refer to the College’s term brochure for details. Attending any of these courses is a great way of you getting to know the local area, participate in different activities as well as meet people. The cost of these leisure courses will vary and are separate to your accredited course.

Policies and Procedures
ESOS legislation and the national code of conduct
The Australian Government wants overseas students in Australia to have a safe, enjoyable and rewarding place to study. Australia’s laws promote quality education and consumer protection for overseas students. These laws are known as the ESOS framework and they include the Education Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Act 2000 and the National Code 2007.

The ESOS Act 2000 has obligations for education providers to ensure that students receive information and have appropriate support whilst studying in Australia. Students are also required to meet requirements of their student visa, and ensure that they comply with these requirements.

You can see specific information about the ESOS Act 2000, your enrolment responsibilities, education provider’s responsibilities and access information at SGSCC International. We also recommend that you read the ESOS Act before signing the acceptance. https://www.aei.gov.au/Regulatory-Information/Education-Services-for-overseas-students-esos-legislative-framework/national-code/Pages/default.aspx

Protection for Overseas students
As an overseas student on a student visa, you must study with an education provider and in a course that can be found on the Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) at http://cricos.deewr.gov.au. CRICOS registration guarantees that the course and the education provider at which you study meet the high standards necessary for overseas students. Please check carefully that the details of your course (including its location) match the information on CRICOS.
